Multiple Tenure-track Faculty Positions

The Department of Aerospace Engineering at Auburn University invites applications for multiple tenure track faculty positions at the assistant or associate professor level. Candidates with expertise in flight dynamics & control or orbital mechanics are particularly encouraged to apply. Other areas of consideration include aerospace systems, design, guidance & control, unmanned and manned aerial systems, structural dynamics and other areas related to aerospace engineering. Candidates will be expected to fully contribute to the department's mission and the development of a strong, nationally recognized, funded research program. The candidate is expected to have a demonstrated track record of scholarship, an active interest in engineering education and strong communication skills. Candidates must have an earned doctorate in aerospace engineering or a closely related field.

Candidates can login and submit a cover letter, CV, research vision, teaching philosophy, and three references at: <https://aufacultypositions.peopleadmin.com/postings/1871> Cover letters may be addressed to: Dr. Brian Thurow, Search Committee Chair, 211 Davis Hall, Auburn University, AL 36849. The review process will continue until the positions are filled.

Candidates may continue to apply until the search has ended. The successful candidate must meet eligibility requirements to work in the U.S. at the time the appointment begins and continue working legally for the proposed term of employment. Additional information about the department may be found at: <http://www.eng.auburn.edu/aero/>

Auburn University is one of the nation's premier land, sea, and space grant institutions. Auburn is both highly research-active and committed to maintaining teaching excellence, offering Bachelor's, First Professional, Master's, Educational Specialist, and Doctoral degrees. In a recent U.S. News and World Report ratings of undergraduate, graduate and online programs, Auburn was ranked 31st, 39th, and 17th among public universities, respectively. Its 2015 enrollment of 27,287 students includes 21,694 undergraduates and 4,204 graduate students. There are 1,216 full-time instructional faculty members distributed across nine Colleges and three Schools, with degrees offered in more than 200 academic programs. The College of Engineering has an enrollment of 4,968 undergraduates and 850 graduate students in eight departments.

Auburn is located 100 miles southwest of Atlanta and 50 miles northeast of Montgomery, the State Capital. The picturesque main campus covers 1,875 acres, and includes the entire southwest quadrant of the city of Auburn. The Auburn-Opelika community has a population of about 100,000, an excellent public school system, and has been nationally ranked as one of the "best small towns in America."

Auburn University is an EEO/Vet/Disability employer.
